

History:

The Agnese Haury Institute, now in its 29th year, is the premier interpreter training program in the United States. Every year it attracts students not only from the US, but internationally. With an average skill improvement around 40%, the AHI is unmatched in both quality and methodology. A non-profit organization, the National Center for Interpretation at the University of Arizona has been the leader in interpreter training and testing for over 30 years.

Overview:

The 2012 Agnese Haury Institute will be held at the University of Arizona in Tucson, AZ from June 4th – 22nd. Anticipated attendance is 70 students for the Agnese Haury Institute for legal/court interpreters (AHI) and 30 for the 2-Week Agnese Haury Medical Interpreter Training Institute (MITI). Students range in all levels of experience and backgrounds, and come from throughout the United States. 2011's AHI hosted 68 students from 21 different states, and the premier of the 2-Week MITI brought in 26 students from across the country.

All of our sponsorship options are customizable, and NCI is happy to work with your budget to find an option that best suits your needs. Remember, as NCI is a non-profit organization, your contributions can be tax deductible.
