About the Spanish Talking Manual

The National Center for Interpretation Testing, Research and Policy presents the Spanish Talking Manual (Second Edition). The Talking Manual was developed to provide students with an opportunity to take a simulated oral interpreting exam and to study examples of acceptable and unacceptable textual and taped renditions of English and Spanish sight translations, along with simultaneous and consecutive interpretations.

Individuals interested in developing their interpreting skills or in preparing for state and federal written and/or oral examinations will find the Talking Manual beneficial.
