Agnese Haury Tuition Awards for Preparación Online:

The Agnese Haury Institute Tuition Awards for Preparación Online are intended to support individual teachers (i.e., teachers whose participation is not being subsidized by their schools or districts) who are striving to improve academic outcomes for Latino students.

The awards are merit-based, as expressed in the application documents listed below. They will cover $750 towards the registration fee, and will be awarded to deserving teachers on a first-come, first-served basis until the funds are expended. Current University of Arizona or University of Arizona Foundation employees are not eligible for awards.

Applicants must submit all of the following to be considered:

- Completed Preparación Online application.
- Current CV or resume.
- Statement of Purpose, not to exceed 600 words. The Statement should be written in English and should address the following:
  - Your reason for interest in Preparación Online
  - Your intention, commitment, or plan for using the Preparación translation and interpretation curriculum units in your teaching.
- Letter of support/recommendation from a school or district administrator, or professional organization representative.

To Apply:

Please submit your application documents to pgatto@email.arizona.edu

Applicants will be notified within three business days following notification of receipt.

Conditions of Receiving an Award:

Successful applicants are expected to commit to the following:

- Pay the remaining $245 registration fee within 10 business days.
- Complete of the Preparación Online In-Service
- Submit a letter of thanks to Mrs. Agnese Haury and the Haury Trust
- Submit a brief testimonial/review of the Preparación Online In-Service/Curriculum Units for possible use in future outreach efforts for the program.

All award recipients are also encouraged to publicize/review the program in appropriate professional forums, such as district or professional organization newsletters, listservs, conferences, or other forums or venues as they see fit.
